

Supplementary Feeding Form

Thanks for choosing PERDIXPro to record your farmland bird supplementary feeding activities.

Supplementary feeding can make a big difference to farmland birds. Recording when and where you feed provides valuable insights into your conservation efforts, and is also a requirement for many stewardship schemes, e.g. CAB12: Supplementary winter bird food.

Supplementary Feeding Form

Your Supplementary Feeding Form

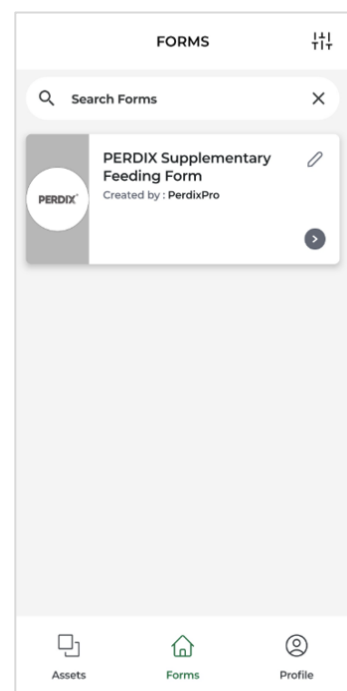

The PERDIX Supplementary Feeding form has been specifically designed to allow you to record your farmland bird supplemental feeding and management activities, quickly and easily.

You can access and complete the form via the PERDIXPro platform by navigating to Forms > Submissions and choose the PERDIX Supplementary Feeding Form.

For in field use, you can access the form via the PERDIXPro Fieldbook App. Click on the Forms tab and select the PERDIX Supplementary Feeding Form to open.

Complete the form and submit the data each time you provide supplemental feed. All responses are stored within your PERDIXPro platform, which can be viewed and downloaded by navigating to Forms > Responses.

N.B. If your form is completed on the App in an area of low signal, the data entered will sync and submit once the App is opened again in an area of signal.

Asset Management

If you wish to digitally map your feeders and associate the PERDIX Supplementary Feeding Form to them, then please see the following guide.
